Mental Health. It points out that 60 per cent of teen-agers now drink before leaving high school, drinking is no longer taboo at many colleges, and more than half a dozen even serve beer on campus.

Botanical myth: Did you think, as most people do, that sunflowers always turn their petals toward the sun? Well, they don't. Prevailing winds often determine the direction in which the blossom head faces.

Worth remembering: "Juvenile delinquency is the result of parents trying to train children without starting at the bottom."

History lesson: Can you identify the U.S. presidents who bore the following nicknames: "Old Fox," "Sectional President," "Veto President," and "Boss"? They were, in order, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Grover Cleveland, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Disenfranchised: Millions of Americans may lose their voting rights, come November, because one out of six persons in our nomadic population will have moved to another state during the year. A residence of six months to a year is required of voters by most states. In New York the period is only three months—in Mississippi it is two years.

Prosperity note: More Americans should eat high on the turkey this Thanksgiving. In 1940 the United States had 35 million turkeys, one for every four persons. This year the supply is more plentiful—about one for every two persons, theoretically allowing a drumstick for nearly everybody.

It was E.W. Howe who observed, "I think I am better than the people who are trying to reform me."

No Signs of Soviet Troop Withdrawal

By PETER REHAK
 Associated Press Writer
PRAGUE (AP)— No definite signs could be seen today of the partial Soviet troop withdrawal announced by Premier Oldrich Cernik during the weekend.

Cernik said in a speech Saturday that "a phased withdrawal of foreign troops from Czechoslovakia will begin in the next few days" although "certain contingents of foreign troops will remain."

His statement was not echoed in Moscow nor was it included in a report on his speech by the Czechoslovak Communist party paper Rude Pravo. Other Prague newspapers and the official radio reported it.

Troop movements were reported in southern Bohemia, but some military observers said they believed the Soviets were reinforcing the border with Austria. The Russians concentrated a large contingent of their forces on the border with West Germany shortly after they moved into Czechoslovakia on the night of Aug. 20-21.

Numerous Soviet troop transport planes took off from Prague's military airport Sunday, and airport sources said they carried troops. But it could not be established whether the troops were being rotated or being flown home to stay. The Soviets have been flying in supplies for their forces since the start of the invasion.

Few troops were seen on the roads Sunday, and the Czechoslovaks, trying to carry on with life as they best could, jammed the roads for outings in the country.

Backus Takes Over Part

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Comedian Jim Backus will open Tuesday in the play "Captain Brassbound's Conversion" in place of actor Paul Ford, who collapsed during a preview performance.

Ford, 66, was ordered Saturday by his doctor to leave the play for at least two weeks.

Rizzo ordered 50 belts, visible for a block, which flash green lights. They replace the white capes and caps traditionally worn by traffic policemen.

General Motors Announces Price Hike

By CHARLES C. CAIN
 AP Business Writer
DETROIT (AP)— General Motors, giant of the auto industry, today announced price increases which averaged $40, or nearly 50 per cent under figures announced by Chrysler last week.

GM Board Chairman James M. Roche denied there had been any pressure from Washington sources to get General Motors to come in with a smaller figure than Chrysler had done as the 1969 cars headed toward the market.

"There were frank discussions in Washington, but I assure you General Motors' decision as usual was made by General Motors people before we even went to Washington," Roche told a news conference.

General Motors, in figuring out its $40, or 1.6 per cent per car price boost, used list price figures, those which the companies charge its dealers. Chrysler, which was the first of the auto companies to post its new list prices had figured the increases at $34, or 2.9 per cent over its 1968 list prices.

In a surprise move, GM reversed its decision to have federally required headrests included in its price tags on announcement day Thursday.

"We had announced that the headrests would be on all the cars and would be included in the price, but for competitive reasons we have had to make them an option until Jan. 1, 1969," Roche said.

This referred to Chrysler's marketing strategy in making the new safety headrests an optional price item at $26 until the date the federal government says they have to be installed.

General Motors undercut Chrysler's price as it said they would be installed for an average of $16 per car. Conceding that many people may not like the headrests, which some consider to be unsightly, Roche said GM would do its best through its dealers to convince all buyers to take the new safety item.

Roche explained that the headrests have been installed on all 1969 GM cars built to date but he said that if a customer absolutely refuses to accept them before the federally required date, they will be removed and the customer will be credited for that amount on his bill.

GM's new price schedule marked the third year in a row it had come in with smaller price increases than did Chrysler, first of the auto firms to lead off the price parade in all three years.

Chrysler came under heavy criticism last week from the White House, United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther and other sources for its new price tags, and the big question in the wake of GM's new figures was—Will Chrysler roll back its prices again?

Ford and American Motors have not announced their 1969 prices as yet.

Lyn, the President was enjoying warm, sunny weather and touring the countryside.

He stepped up his church-going Sunday, taking in Roman Catholic and Lutheran services near his ranch and attending the dedication of a new parish house for his friend, the Rev. Wunibald Schneider, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Roman Catholic church in neighboring Stonewall.

At the parsonage dedication, 77-year-old Archbishop Robert Lucey of San Antonio gave strong endorsement of the President's Vietnam policy, with Johnson standing on the steps behind him and grandson Lyn occasionally tugging at the priest's knee.

The archbishop told the crowd of about 200 that the purpose of the Vietnam war was "to teach unjust aggressors that unjust aggression does not pay."

In this, he said, Johnson followed a papal peace program enunciated in 1917, which stated "when unjust aggression begins in this world of ours, the peace-loving nations must do something about it."

Hippies Take Their Own Tour and Stare at the Suburbanites

NEW YORK (AP)— Tired of being gawked at by camera-toting tourists from the wilds of suburbia, a group of hippies from the Lower East Side turned the tables Sunday.

They took their own tour and stared at the suburbanites. About 50 hippies, clad in their best beads and bells, paid $5 each, then boarded a bus at St. Mark's Place, in the heart of the East Village, and set off for a day in Queens, a predominantly middle class borough of New York City.

The tour was the brainchild of Joe Skaggs, 23, an artist, who described the expedition as "a put-on of middle class values . . . a sort of cultural exchange."

The turned-on tourists got glimpses of such nonhippie strongholds as housing developments, bowling alleys, neatly manicured lawns and other middle class symbols which many of the hippies left behind when they fled to the Village.

Included in the tour were several stops. During one of them—at a restaurant for ice cream—eight "straight" patrons fled through a side door when the hippies walked in.

Other Queens residents greeted the expedition with a mixture of surprise, skepticism and amusement.

"We're being invaded," cried one housewife, as the hippies de-bussed near her house. "It must be some kind of underground movie stunt," added her husband.

During a stop in Jamaica Estates, the hippies wandered around, snapping pictures of suburbanites watering their lawns and reading the Sunday papers.

"Hey what do you do at night around here?" one of the tour group asked a woman.

"Not much," she said. "We go to sleep early."

The tour ended with a happening in the Nirvana Headshop—a touch of hippiedom in Hillside, Queens—where four men and three women danced, nude, while an artist painted their bodies.

Bob Lake, who usually runs regular bus tours around Manhattan, acted as tour guide.

enough? Humphrey thinks he can win by taking the offense against Nixon on issues of personality, prosperity, by calling for civil justice as well as law and order and by trying to paint Nixon as more of a hawk or foreign policy hardliner than Humphrey.

Nor is Humphrey reluctant to portray himself as, if not the best presidential candidate possible, at least a better alternative than Nixon or George C. Wallace.

His biggest problem, and he knows it, is Vietnam. He is said to be under strong pressure to make some dramatic gesture or statement that would divorce him from the Johnson administration's Vietnam policy. It seemed unlikely that he would.

But he is again hitting with greater emphasis that while he is only a vice president and a candidate now and thus with no control over events, he would put an end to the war on top of his priorities as president.

Purcell Gives Opinion on Election

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell said today that two judges and one clerk in each precinct must be members of the majority party in the Nov. 5 general election.

He said one judge and one clerk must be members of the minority party.

His opinion came in regard to composition of election officials in Arkansas.

Purcell's opinion went to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who expressed fear last week that the Republican party, legally the majority party in Arkansas, might not have representation at some precincts in the election.

Rockefeller's fear came after the state Board of Election Commissioners, controlled by Democrats, named the third members of the 75 county election commissions last Monday.

The members nominated by the 6-3 Democratic majority on the state board will control the balance of power in 16 counties where Rockefeller said the board's choice did not represent the GOP.

Odell Pollard, state Republican chairman and a state board member, said he believed that under the law the county commissioners representing Republicans might disagree on the naming of judges and clerks, thus throwing the election open to the entire commission.

Purcell told Rockefeller that the underlying premise of the law "is that two judges and one clerk in each precinct must be members of the majority party and that one judge and one clerk representing the minority party must be members of such minority party."

Candidates for Nobel Peace Prize

OSLO, Norway (AP) — More candidates than ever before have been put forward for the Nobel Peace Prize this year. But with the present world tension it seems unlikely the gold medal and $50,000 prize will be awarded to anyone.

The five-man Nobel committee of the Norwegian Parliament meets soon and an announcement is expected late next month.

The award, supposed to be made annually, has not been given since 1965—when it was presented to the United Nations Children's fund—UNICEF.

There are 48 candidates this year, one more than the previous record set last year. The committee never makes public the names of the candidates.

MR. AND MRS. J. F. NEWBERRY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Braswell, 909 E. 10th Street, Texarkana, Arkansas was the setting for a reception honoring Mrs. Braswell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Newberry of Hope. The occasion marked the 62nd wedding anniversary of the Newberrys.

The Newberrys are life-long residents of Hope. Before her marriage Mrs. Newberry was Essie Butler. They are the parents of four daughters and one son all of whom helped to celebrate the occasion. They are: Mrs. Jim Slocum, Valliant, Oklahoma; Mrs. Talmadge Braswell, Texarkana, Arkansas; Mrs. Owen Hollis, Hope; Mrs. Garland Rogers, Galveston, Texas and John Newberry of Hobbs, New Mexico.

They have 16 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren. In the entrance hall and near the register table was a large arrangement of yellow rose buds in a cut glass crystal pitcher, also an arrangement of white roses with love birds. The yellow and white color scheme was carried out throughout the house in the flower arrangements and candles.

The reception table was covered with a floor-length white satin cloth overlaid with green net. The centerpiece, flanked by yellow candles, was an arrangement of daisies in a yellow pitcher, of daisy and button crossbar design. The pitcher was made by Richards and Hartley of Tarentum, Pennsylvania in the early 1800's. The pitcher, an antique was a gift to Mrs. Newberry from her grandmother when she was 12 years of age. Frosted punch and decorated cake squares were served to the many close friends and relatives who called during the appointed hours.

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us! it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help Us! in this newspaper. "RELIGIONISTS" AREN'T ALWAYS RIGHT

Dear Helen: Not many years ago I wrote a "lovelorn column" for a local paper. I soon learned that the most bigoted people around were those who sounded off in the name of "religion." They damned me as a n instrument of the devil and consigned me to everlasting fire if my views differed from theirs by a hairbreadth.

Perhaps you, being an emancipated columnist, will say what I feared to. — ONCE CHICKEN

Dear O.C.: I've already said it, many times, but in a way that speaks louder than my own words. I simply print the fanatical letters verbatim. I rate replies from readers show that most know the difference between true religion and bigotry.

Here's an example: Dear Mrs. Bottel: "You are sending young people straight into the arms of the devil with your immoral advice." etc., etc., — Mr. N."

.....And do you know WHY Mr. N. condemned me? Because I told an almost 14-year old girl she was old enough to shave her legs if they needed it! — H.

Dear Helen: The letter from the woman whose marriage was ruined by her stepdaughters inspired me to give her some advice. She said she was walking out. She's foolish. I would stand up to the stepdaughters and let them know what's what.

If a chewing out didn't work, I'd use a strap.

As a First Sergeant in the Army, sometimes I had to whip a whole platoon before I got their respect. Then I had it made!

Tell that woman to make it so hot for those kids they'll shape up or else. — M Sgt., E.K.

Dear Sgt.: Tell me, Sarge, did you come out of the Army, wearing a Mr. Popularity medal? — H.

Dear Helen: I can't see to drive, so I couldn't pass the driving test. Now I don't have any identification card, so that when I try to cash checks or otherwise establish myself, I'm stuck.

What do people without a driver's license do? I've asked at the police station, and they don't make identification cards. — J.

Dear J.: I understand that in some states, the Motor Vehicles Department issues special identification cards to non-drivers. Inquire at your DMV and you may find an answer to your question. — H.

Dear Helen: Three cheers for the gal who said she "wrote away" her eating problems by grabbing a pen instead of a sweet. Writing is a wonderful emotional outlet. It straightens out the thinking, and makes one realize it isn't so much the problem in life, as the way we adjust and learn to cope with it. — EDNA

Mickey Still for the Young

DISNEYLAND, Calif. (AP) — Mickey Mouse, at 40, is still the lovable squeaky-voiced friend of youngsters everywhere. The thousands who turned out for his birthday party Sunday attested to that. A huge cake was cut in honor of the cartoon character.

Walt Disney created Mickey on a train ride from New York City in late September 1928. A month later, he introduced him in the film, "Steamboat Willie." Disney died two years ago.

Priests Walk Out in Bitter Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bitter dispute within the Washington Roman Catholic archdiocese has intensified in the wake of an unprecedented walk-out protest against Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle, archbishop of the diocese.

About 200 persons walked out of St. Matthew's cathedral during masses Sunday as the cardinal rose to urge obedience to Pope Paul VI's latest edict banning use of artificial birth controls.

The cardinal, who has been challenged on his interpretation of the Pope's encyclical by 44 area priests, had ordered a pastoral letter criticizing the dissenters read in all Roman Catholic churches in his jurisdiction. Cardinal O'Boyle himself read the letter at three masses at St. Matthew's, and watched without apparent emotion as the people walked from the crowded cathedral. Most returned after he finished reading the message.

It was estimated that at least another 200 persons left other churches when the letter was read.

The protest had been urged by two lay organizations supporting the dissident priests.

The cardinal said after the services that it was the first time he had encountered such a protest in his 20 years as archbishop of Washington. "It is a very emotional matter," he said. Other church officials said it was probably the first time parishioners had taken such action in any Catholic church.

The dispute arose following issuance of the Pope's edict July 29 prohibiting the use of all forms of artificial contraceptive devices, leaving only the rhythm method acceptable for Catholics.

Cardinal O'Boyle immediately interpreted the encyclical as binding on all Catholics. This was challenged by a group of 51 priests, later reduced to 44, who contend the Pope's statement leaves it up to individual Catholics to follow as a matter of personal conscience.

As the dissent continued the cardinal several days ago took disciplinary action against 13 priests. Action against the remaining 31 is pending.

In the 800 word letter, which was to be read "without comment or discussion," Cardinal O'Boyle told dissenters that continued disobedience of the birth control teaching might result in their being struck by a curse mentioned in the Book of Deuteronomy.

The curse mentioned in Deuteronomy 29:18-20 says "the wrath and the jealousy of the Lord" would fall on a man who follows his conscience over divine law.

Mention of the curse immediately brought criticism from one of the 44 priests, the Rev. James P. Kennedy, who said the cardinal quoted the passage out of context.

The cardinal "is, if the words are applied literally, calling us pagans," because the quote referred to nonbelievers who rejected the God of Israel, he said.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Four television series made their debuts over the weekend. None, unhappily, seems destined to set the TV world on fire.

They were NBC's "The Name of the Game" on Friday, "Adam 12" and "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" on Saturday and ABC's "Land of the Giants" on Sunday night.

"The Name of the Game" is an outside action series built around a magazine publishing empire—that's the excuse to have reporters and editors making like private eyes.

The first show starred Tony Franciosa, who played a star reported stumbling into a homicide which led him to an international spy case. The action was larded with pseudo-sophisticated dialogue that didn't come off as smartly as it was supposed to. The thin story was stretched almost to the snapping point to fill the 90 minutes.

"Adam 12" carried the unmistakable brand marks of "Dragnet" in its first show—logically since Jack Webb of "Dragnet" is producing the new police series. This time, the viewer finds what it's like to ride a patrol car in Los Angeles.

In one hectic night on the job, the two officers—Martin Milner as the veteran cop and Kent McCord as the rookie—chased a pair of holdup men until they caught them in a flaming car crash, revived a suffocating baby and rounded up a gang of young thugs who were shooting up a neighborhood.

"The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" is comedy that depends on the viewer's acceptance of labored fantasy if the humor is to work at all.

This series has Hope Lange, playing a widow with two children, moving into a seaside house built generations before by a sea captain. The sea captain, played by Edward Mulhare, is a lively 100-year-old ghost, full of pranks like tossing buckets of water at people, and constantly appearing and disappearing. It all seemed pretty strained.

"Land of Giants" takes place in 1983 when passengers and crew of a plane are pulled onto a distant planet where everything is 12 times the size of earth's flora and fauna, including its people.

The earth people had one horrendous experience after another: their plane was rocked by a

Pilot Rescued by Surfers

SALESBURY, Mass. (AP) — The pilot of a downed plane was rescued by surfers Sunday.

Police said Paul Lamson, 44, of Hampton, N.H., ditched his disabled single engine plane in the Atlantic about 900 feet from shore to avoid hitting persons in a crowded beach area.

He clung to the wing of the craft until it began to sink, then attempted to swim to shore.

Lee Knapp, 17, a senior at Amesbury High School, and another unidentified surfer, paddled out on their boards to Lamson and supported him between them while they paddled to shore, police said.

Lamson was treated for facial cuts and a broken nose at the Exeter, N.H., hospital and released.

Texas and Houston in 20-20 Tie

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

O.J. Simpson of Southern California was a first team All-American halfback last year. Chris Gilbert of Texas and Paul Gipson of Houston only made the second team.

On college football's first big Saturday, Simpson scored four touchdowns and rambled for 239 yards on 39 carries as second-ranked Southern California defeated Minnesota 29-29.

O.J., however, did not overshadow the play of Gilbert and Gipson in what some people called the championship game of the Southwest. Both had a lot to do with the 20-20 tie that resulted from the clash between the nation's No. 4 team, Texas, and the No. 11 team, Houston.

Gilbert ran for 195 yards on 21 carries; Gipson gained 173 yards on 28 tries. Simpson's average per carry was six yards, the same as Gipson's. Gilbert finished with a nine-yard average.

Included in Gilbert's gains were touchdowns runs of 57 and eight yards. Gipson scored all three of Houston's touchdowns on runs of one, 66 and five yards.

There was one time, however, when Texas stopped Gipson, and that oiled the difference between a tie and a Houston victory. The Cougars had the ball at the Texas two with a fourth down, and the Longhorns stopped Gipson at the line.

Another 1967 All-American back, Leroy Keyes of top-ranked Purdue, played only sparingly in the Bollermakers' 44-7 rout of Virginia. Keyes was hampered by a bruised right hip but still scored one touchdown on a three-yard burst and threw 12 yards to Bob Dillingham for another.

The Bollermakers hope Keyes will be fully recovered for next Saturday's encounter with Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., because the third-ranked Irish opened their season last Saturday by crushing Oklahoma, No. 5, 45-21. Like Simpson, Gilbert and Gipson did individually, the Irish compiled some impressive statistics.

They amassed a school record 35 first downs, ran for 357 yards and passed for 214 more, giving them a total offense of 571 yards. End Jim Seymour also set a record, catching two touchdown passes for a career total of 14, one more than Leon Hart had in his days with the Irish.

Oklahoma and Minnesota were not the only members of the Top 20 to lose. Iowa edged eight-ranked Oregon State 21-20; and Louisiana State, No. 20, nipped Texas A&M, No. 13, 13-12.

Florida, No. 6, got past Air Force 22-20; seventh-ranked Alabama downed Virginia Tech 14-7.

Russell Ready to Sign a Rich Contract

BOSTON (AP) — Bill Russell, a 12-year National Basketball Association veteran, is ready to sign one of the richest contracts in NBA history to continue as player-coach of the Boston Celtics for another couple of years.

A source told The Associated Press Sunday night that Russell has agreed to terms in a two-year contract calling for slightly more than $200,000 a season.

Although a club spokesman said he had no knowledge of the signing, there was speculation the announcement might be made at a noon luncheon for Russell and his teammates.

Bad Week in Hope for DeQueen

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Without a doubt, last weekend was very satisfying to partisan local football fans. The Bobkittens and Bobcats beat DeQueen on successive evenings, then the Razorbacks plastered Oklahoma State 32-15 Saturday night.

Those three victories were all ironic in that the winners each needed badly some rewards after losing seasons in 1967. On our local level, too, the victories were terribly needed to bolster school spirit and to draw fans for such away contests as Friday's night's journey to Smackover.

Easily the most dramatic finish was the Bobkittens' 60-yard drive to Tommy Miller's second TD with a minute left to give Hope the game 13-7. That set the Kittens' record at 2-0 for the season, and they travel to Arkadelphia Thursday night before hitting a long home stand.

Then, of course, the Bobcats combined the absence of fumbling, 330 yards total offense, and fine play-calling by Larry Massanelli for the 30-7 home field win. Two 64-yard drives implanted confidence where the offensive unit had known only fear and dread of the expected fumble.

This writer was in Little Rock for the Hogs' opener in Hammons Stadium, and came out of it quite impressed. This young Razorback squad could earn Frank Broyles come Coach-of-the-Year awards before it's over. They're young and still developing, yet the second-team White offense is as solid as the No. 1 bunch.

Arkansas' out-of-state prize, succeeding those such as Loyd Phillips, Lance Alworth, and David Dickey, is Bill Montgomery. He reminds closely to A&M's Edd Hargett in the passing department (Montgomery is more accurate), and looks like Bill Bradley on the options and sprint-outs. The public address announcer in the third period even identified Bill Montgomery as Bill Bradley, which brought some laughs.

Tonight begins a new week with a clean slate and a better attitude, and the Hope "B" Lizards will play host to the Nashville Jayvees at Hammons Stadium this evening with a 7:30 p.m. kick-off time.

Meanwhile the remainder of the squad will be shown the DeQueen game film, which Coach Higgins will keep as proof of his first victory as a head football coach. Tomorrow the 4-AA statistical report will be in, and it will very likely look much improved in Hope's concern, both on offense and defense. Smackover lost their first game to Fairview last Friday night, and the Redbirds piled up a 40-13 win. Fairview thus revenge the Buckaroos, who handed the Cards their only defeat of that 11-1 season by 14-13.

Put October 18th on your list as Homecoming Day at HHS, very appropriately being the Fairview game.

Top Knight Winner at Saratoga

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Top Knight, who veteran thoroughbred trainer Ray Metcalf calls the best he's ever handled, may very well turn out to be the best 2-year-old anybody's handled this year.

The Steven B. Wilson-owned juvenile backed up his impressive victory in the Hopeful at Saratoga by romping home first in the $142,820 Futurity last Saturday at Belmont Park.

Manny Ycaza sent Top Knight over the 6½ furlongs in 1:16 1-5 for a six-length margin over C. V. Whitney's True North, with Robert J. Kleberg's Never Confuse another one-half-length back in third.

Metcalf says Top Knight might start in the seven-furlong Cowdin Oct. 2 and definitely will go in the one-mile Champagne Oct. 12 at Belmont. He probably will meet Ogden Phipps' Reviewer and Wheatley Stable's King Emperor in at least one of them.

Top Knight, who has four wins and two seconds in seven starts, earned $88,283 to boost his bankroll to $384,238.

Two-year-olds also went after big money—the biggest ever for a thoroughbred race in West Virginia—in the Tristate Futurity Saturday night at Shenandoah Downs.

First money of $39,850 from the gross purse of $82,950 went to William May's North Flight, who scored by a neck over Colin MacLeod Jr.'s Black North Flight, ridden by Cana-

Dodgers Complete Card Sweep

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Detroit's World Series dossier on the St. Louis Cardinals might be a trifle thin today... through no fault of the Tiger scouts.

For the past week the National League champs have shown the Bird-dogs practically nothing.

Los Angeles' late-streaking Dodgers beat St. Louis ace Bob Gibson 3-2 Sunday, completing a three-game sweep of the Cardinals for a 15-4 mark over the last three weeks.

The Cards have won one of six starts since they locked up the flag at Houston one week ago.

The victory was Ray Washburn's no-hit gem at San Francisco... the day after the Giants' Gaylord Perry nipped Gibson 1-0 with no-hit.

Sunday's loss killed the Cards' last hope for a 100-victory season. They're 94-63 with five games remaining.

Second place San Francisco belted Atlanta 10-2, Pittsburgh trimmed the Chicago Cubs 5-1, Houston topped Cincinnati 6-1 and the New York Mets downed Philadelphia 5-2 in other NL games.

In the American League Washington topped the Tigers 6-0, Boston dropped the New York Yankees 5-1, Baltimore blanked the Chicago White Sox 3-0, Cleveland edged California 2-1 and Minnesota shaded Oakland 2-1.

Right-hander Don Sutton blanked the Cardinals on one hit until the eighth inning, when he balked home the second of two St. Louis runs for a 2-2 deadlock.

But the Dodgers broke the tie in the bottom of the eighth on a walk, a sacrifice and rookie right fielder Joe Hagie's throwing error. Bill Sudakis scored the winning run when Hagie caught Paul Popovich's short fly and then threw wildly past third base.

Willie Crawford homered off Gibson, 21-9, who has beaten the Dodgers only 11 times in 28 lifetime decisions.

Willie McCovey drove in three runs for the Giants with a double and his 35th homer, boosting his league RBI lead to 102. Willie Mays lashed three hits and Jim Hart drove in three runs, helping Bob Bolin, 10-5, breeze past the Braves with a five-hitter.

Bob Moose fired a four-hitter as the Pirates climbed into a three-way tie for fourth place with the Cubs and Braves. Gene Alley delivered two runs with a homer and single and Roberto Clemente hit an inside-the-park homer to pace the Pittsburgh attack.

Jim Wynn's 24th and 25th homers knocked in three runs, leading the Astros past the third place Reds behind southpaw Mike Cuellar, who scattered eight hits.

The victory left Houston one game behind the ninth place Mets, who subdued Philadelphia on the tight relief pitching of Don Cardwell. The veteran right-hander took over for rookie Jim McAndrew in the sixth and retired all 12 Phillies he faced.

Packers Are Beaten by the Vikings

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Give the Minnesota Vikings two inches and they'll take 74 yards—and the Green Bay Packers.

The Packers got a taste of such ingratitude Sunday when the improving Vikings used those inches to spring the biggest upset of the young National Football League season by upending the world champions 26-13.

The Vikings decided they'd like those two inches in the third quarter after Green Bay had scored and cut Minnesota's lead to 16-6. The Packers, their momentum growing, had Minnesota stopped, fourth down and two inches needed for a first down on the Vikings' 26-yard line.

But Coach Bud Grant decided to try for it and quarterback Joe Kapp crept two inches for a first down, and then drove Minnesota 74 yards for the back-breaking touchdown.

In more minor surprises, the Detroit Lions, bouncing back after being shellacked 59-13 by Dallas last week, turned on the favored Chicago Bears 42-0, and the New Orleans Saints piled past the Washington Redskins 37-17.

Baltimore subdued Atlanta 28-20, Los Angeles leveled Pittsburgh 45-10, and Dallas squashed Cleveland 28-7 as the other NFL powerhouses rolled on. In other games, San Francisco beat St. Louis 35-17 and the New York Giants outlasted Philadelphia 34-25.

In the American League, it was the New York Jets 47, Boston 31; Cincinnati 34, Buffalo 23, and Kansas City 34, Denver 2.

Minnesota, which has beaten the Packers four of their last nine meetings, built a 16-0 lead by halftime on a safety and Bill Brown's two scoring runs, but the issue still was in doubt when Kapp inched his way to the vital first down.

"It was just an occasion where we felt we had to take them," Grant said of Minnesota's gamble, and Coach Phil Bengtson of the Packers admitted it succeeded.

"That fourth down play took a lot of steam out of us," he said. Bill Munson, making his debut as Detroit's quarterback, didn't bother with inches as he threw touchdown passes of 86 yards to Mel Farr and 37 and 15 to rookie Earl McCulloch. The Lions stifled the Bears' offense with eight interceptions, one short of the record. Mike Weger and Lem Barney each stole three.

Don McCall became the first New Orleans back to gain more than 100 yards in a game—he ran for 127 and scored two times. Dave Whitsett blocked a punt and carried it four yards for a score, blocked a field goal try and intercepted a pass leading to a touchdown as the Saints stopped Sonny Jurgenson until the fourth period.

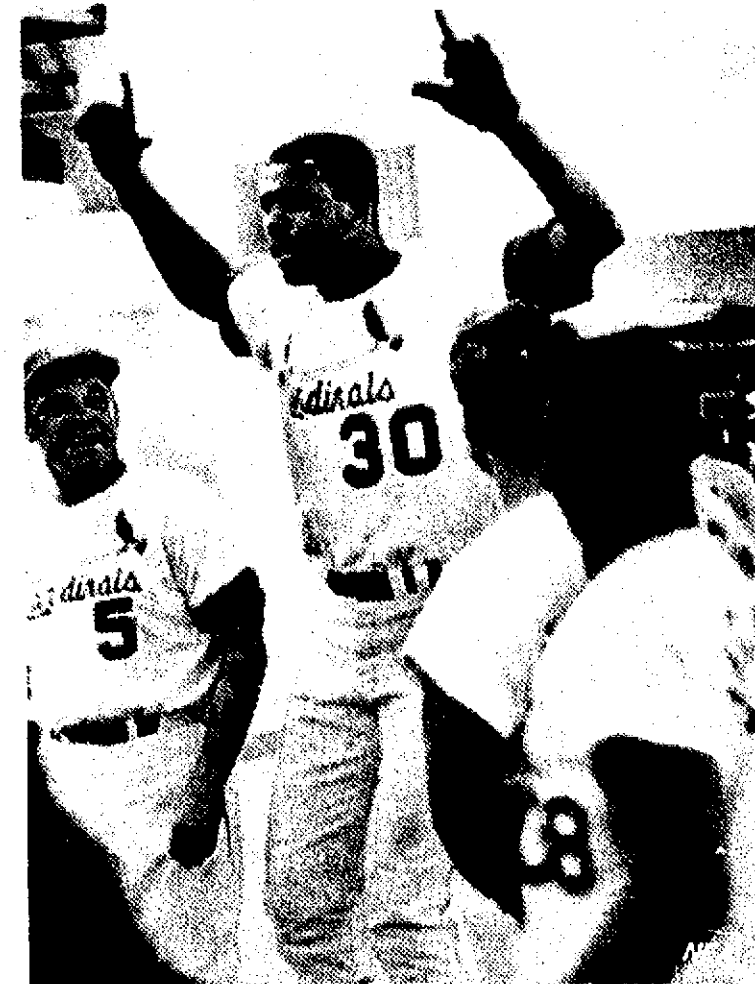

Earl Morrill, again filling in for injured Johnny Unitas, threw three interceptions and had one of three Baltimore fumbles, but he overcame the errors with three scoring passes and set up another touchdown with an 84-yard throw.

The winning touchdown—for a 21-20 lead—came with 39 seconds left in the half when Morrill threw a parallel pass to halfback Tom Matte, who tossed back to Morrill, who threw 46 yards to Jimmy Orr.

Roman Gabriel hit 16 of 20 passes for 261 yards and four touchdowns and Dick Bass scored three times as the Rams routed Pittsburgh.

Defensive end Willie Townes recovered quarterback Frank Ryan's fumble and rumbled 20 yards for a touchdown and a 14-0 lead for Dallas in the second quarter, and Dan Reeves added two short scoring runs in the final half.

John Brodie, who spent two days in the hospital with a crick in his neck last week, fired three scoring passes for San Francisco and set up a fourth

Jets, Behind Namath, Get League Lead

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Patriots had their home opener in Birmingham, Ala., the Patriots looking for sole control of the top spot in the Eastern Division and Birmingham looking for a franchise in the American Football League.

The Patriots suffered a complete disappointment and Birmingham at least a mild one. Boston is having difficulty finding a suitable playing site, and the game was billed as a test to see how the AFL would draw in Birmingham.

A crowd of 29,129 turned out at Legion Field, which seats about 70,000, Sunday to watch the New York Jets and Boston, sharing the lead in the East with 1-0 records.

New York won it 47-31 on Joe Namath's passing and an alert defense, the Jets taking sole possession of the No. 1 position. Cincinnati beat Buffalo 34-23 and Kansas City whipped Denver 34-2 in the other Sunday games.

San Diego topped Houston 20-14 and Oakland stopped Miami 47-21 Saturday night. In the National Football League, all Sunday afternoon, Minnesota upset Green Bay 26-13, Detroit stunned Chicago 42-0, Baltimore beat Atlanta 28-20, New Orleans surprised Washington 37-17, Dallas whipped Cleveland 28-7, and Los Angeles romped over Pittsburgh 45-10.

Boston never led against New York, but the Patriots were threatening to make a game of it early in the third period when Mel Witt intercepted a Namath pass and returned it four yards for a touchdown, closing the gap to 20-17.

But the Jets quickly put it out of reach, scoring 17 points before the period was over. Mark Smolinski picked up a blocked punt and scored from three yards out.

A fast Jet rush forced a shot punt, gave New York field position and Namath capitalized on it with a 27 yard touchdown pass, his second of the day. A pass interception set up a 27 yard field goal by Jim Turner, the Jets had a 37-17 lead and were out of danger.

The heavily favored Chiefs couldn't get started against Denver, managed only a 6-2 halftime lead and coach Hank Stram made some changes.

He sent in second-string quarterback Jackie Lee, who hit on seven of eight passes for 99 yards and two touchdowns, and third string running back Robert Holmes, who scored twice on runs of 17 and six yards as the Chiefs made a rout of it.

Cincinnati converted a pair of second-half interceptions into touchdowns and handed Buffalo its third consecutive loss. Al Beauchamp returned one 17 yards and Charley King 32 yards for another.

The victories by Oakland and San Diego Saturday left them in a tie at the top in the West at 2-0.

Daryle Lamontea fired touchdown passes of 74, 3, 49 and 16 yards in the first half, the Raiders with his passing.

Pete Gogolak's second field goal put the Giants ahead 20-19 in the third quarter and Fran Tarkenton passed for a 27-19 lead after Al Haymond returned a kickoff 98 yards for the Eagles and Carl Lockhart brought back an interception 72 yards for New York. Three blocked extra point tries set back the Eagles.

Razorbacks Forced to Run to Win

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Oklahoma State University dictated the terms to the University of Arkansas Saturday night: run or get beat.

The Razorbacks, accepting the challenge, turned to their ground game in the second half and came from behind for a 32-15 confidence-building victory over OSU.

"The defense always dictates what your offense can do," said Frank Broyles Sunday, Arkansas' Bill Montgomery took to the air 25 times in the first half, six times in the final 30 minutes.

"In recent years, they've come at us with nine men, forcing all the time, giving us all sorts of first-game problems," said Broyles of OSU. "As this game went along, it became apparent that they were blitzing on first down, the backing off the line and playing pass defense on the other downs."

The Porkers, trailing 15-3 at the half, turned to running backs Bruce Maxwell, Bill Burnett and David Dickey in the final two quarters.

The Razorbacks' offensive line began to control the line of scrimmage after David Dickey's second touchdown of the night, and 26th of his career, put Arkansas ahead 18-15 with about 11 minutes left.

Jerry Dossey set up the go-ahead touchdown when he recovered a fumbled punt at the OSU 14.

Broyles said, however, that two of the big plays occurred in the next five minutes. OSU reached the Arkansas 49 on two quick first downs and two plays later faced a third and two situation. Linebacker Lynn Garner and tackle Dick Bumpas, a pair of Fort Smith products, crashed through to drop Wayne Hallmark for a two-yard loss.

Ronnie Johnson's ensuing punt traveled 13 yards and the Porkers geared up for a 70-yard touchdown march that put the game away.

"We still had the three-point lead with about eight minutes left in the game and we were on our 30," said Broyles. "We had not yet secured the win. They played a forcing defense on first down and handed us a one-yard loss."

"We did not want to pass at that point," he said. "On second down, Jim Barnes made a great trap block and Bruce Maxwell broke around it, sidestepped a couple of men and went to the outside, and continued for 22 yards. That put us in their territory. Instead of punting, we went on and scored."

Maxwell, who did not play last year, gained 78 yards on 14 carries. "Maxwell's debut after a year's layoff was most encouraging," said Broyles.

Maxwell was the second leading ground-gainer for the Porkers. Bill Burnett, brother of two former Arkansas Standouts, picked up 92 yards on 21 attempts. He carried five times in a row during the drive for the third touchdown and scored the clincher from the 11 standing up.

Broyles did not announce until game time that Montgomery, a much heralded sophomore from Carrollton, Tex., would be the starting quarterback.

"I wasn't sure I was going to start Montgomery," said Broyles. "I decided to wait until I saw him warm up. If he showed he was poised and confident, then I would start him."

Montgomery connected on 16 of 31 attempts for 157 yards and made several important gains on keepers.

Broyles had said several times that he was worried about the Razorbacks' defense. "The defense got a good test," he said. "They'll be better team as the season progresses. They showed lots of character."

Young Twins Hurler Gives Up 3 Hits

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cesar Tovar took the grand tour of Minnesota's Metropolitan Stadium... position-by-position.

And for a tantalizing few innings, it looked like the Twins' chief handyman might own a tiny piece of a no-hitter as well as the distinction of being only the second man in major league history to play all nine positions in a single game.

But Oakland eventually managed three hits against young Tom Hall, who relieved in the second inning Sunday after Tovar started his tour by pitching a hitless first inning.

Tovar moved behind the plate in the second and around the infield and outfield in the third inning as the Twins nipped the A's 2-1.

In other American League action Sunday, Baltimore shut out Chicago 3-0, Washington blanked Detroit 6-0, Boston tripped New York 5-1 and Cleveland squeezed by California 2-1.

In the National League, San Francisco pounded Atlanta 10-2, New York dropped Philadelphia 5-2, Los Angeles edged St. Louis 3-2, Houston beat Cincinnati 6-1 and Pittsburgh rapped Chicago 5-1.

Tovar scored Minnesota's first run in the third when he singled and scored on Bob Allison's triple. Red Carew drove in the Twins' other run with a fifth inning single.

Oakland's Bert Campaneris, the only other man to play all nine positions in one game, was the Athletics' leadoff batter in the first against Tovar and fouled out. Reggie Jackson struck out and then Danny Carter walked. Tovar balked the runner to second before retiring Sal Kando on a foul pop.

The A's didn't get a hit against Hall until the sixth and had only one until the eighth when they rallied for a run, knocking the youngster out. But Al Worthington shut the door.

Dave McNally scattered eight hits and became the winningest pitcher in modern Baltimore history by shutting out Chicago, 3-0. McNally, 21-10 for the season, is 13-2 since the All Star break.

Chicago's Wilbur Wood tied a major league record with his 84th appearance of the year. Ted Abernathy, then with the Chicago Cubs, established the mark in 1965.

Rich Billings and Brant Alyea tagged home runs and Camilo Pascual's four-hitter eased Washington past Detroit and ended a 11-game winning streak for the Tigers.

Billings' homer was his first in the majors and Alyea's three-run shot was his sixth.

Lou Johnson singled pinch runner Tommy Harper home with Cleveland's winning run in the eighth inning against California.

Tony Horton, whose sixth inning homer was Cleveland's first hit, singled in the eighth and Harper, running for him, stole second. Then Johnson singled the run home.

Jerry Moses cracked a two-run homer and Joe Foy drove in two runs with a third inning single, helping the Red Sox past the Yankees.

Dick Ellsworth's four-hitter gave Boston its fifth straight victory and tagged the Yankees with their sixth loss in a row.

The Roman emperor Caligula made his horse a consul.

Petty Sets Stock Car Race Record

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) —

Plymouth driver Richard Petty set a record in winning the $27,000 Old Dominion 500 stock car race Sunday—and simultaneously saw another of his records broken by the No. 2 finisher.

Taking the lead for keeps on the 262nd lap of the 500-lap race at the half-mile Martinsville Speedway track, Petty won by more than three laps and pocketed a total of $5,999.

It was the sixth time the Randleman, N.C., driver had won a major NASCAR event at Martinsville—a record for the track. But Cale Yarborough, driving a Ford Torino, added $2,700 to his bank account in finishing second and, by so doing eclipsed Petty's 1967 record of $130,275 in money-winnings. Yarborough now has won $130,706.

Another Ford Torino driver, Lee Roy Yarborough of Columbia, S.C., was third and won $1,244. Ford driver Bud Moore of Charlotte was fourth and Dodge driver Bobby Isaac of Catawba, N.C., fifth.

Archer Wins Golf Meet in Oklahoma

By RALPH COLE
Associated Press Sports Writer

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — "It beats packing bags," said a beaming George Archer, who along with Bobby Nichols had just fired a blistering seven-under-par 65 Sunday to win the PGA team championship by two strokes.

Archer and Nichols divided the top prize of $40,000 in the best-ball tournament, which had a total purse of $200,000.

Nichols announced Sunday he would participate in no more tournaments this year. "Stick a fork in me," he said, "I'm done. This is a good way to end the year."

The two veteran partners toured the rough 7,173-yard par-72 Quail Creek Country Club course in a 22-under-par 265 to win the tourney.

They bogeyed only one hole, the 12th hole at Twin Hill Country Club across town, where players put in one round.

They both three-putted that hole, Rives McBee and Monty Kaser shot a three-under-par 69 Sunday to win second place and $24,000 in the tournament, two strokes behind Nichols and Archer.

Tom Weiskopf and R. H. Sikes also had a 69 Sunday for a tournament total of 268, good enough for third place and a cash prize of $15,000.

Nichols was red hot Sunday, as he birdied the first three holes and saved a par on the 18th to pull the team from a third-place tie after 54 holes to the championship.

McBee and Kaser held the lead after 54 holes with Dale Douglass and Hale Irwin at 198, 17-under-par.

THE WELL CHILD® Emotional Tension May Cause Bedwetting

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller charged again Thursday night that Marion Crank's headquarters has been frequented by Democrats who were involved in now-bankrupt Arkansas Loan & Thrift Corp.

A previous suc charge by Rockefeller was denied by Crank's campaign manager, Jack Cakes, but Thursday night, in a vigorous attack on Democrats, Rockefeller named three men as those involved in AL&T and supporting Crank. He named former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, former state Rep. Paul Van Dalsem of Perry County, and Claude Carpenter, a 1966 candidate for Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor.

Van Dalsem and Carpenter could not be contacted for comment, Crank's headquarters said the candidate and Cakes were at a fund-raising dinner. Rebecca Bennett, the former attorney general's wife, said Bennett

A mother writes that her daughter, 9, has been a bed-wetter ever since she was 2. Doctors can find no kidney or bladder disease and say that the cause is emotional tension. They say that she will outgrow the habit in time. In the course of the examinations, they found that this girl was born with double ureters. This developmental oddity would have no effect on this girl's kidney or bladder function and no treatment is required for it. The sooner she learns to control her bladder, however, the better, because she is not likely to outgrow her bedwetting until she makes up her mind that she wants to be a big girl.

Several treatments for this condition have been used. Some work for one child but not for another. In one study, children from 5 to 14 were put on a training program. Each child drank all the fluid he wanted during the day but was urged to postpone emptying his bladder at home until the discomfort became unbearable. The amount of urine then passed was measured and the trick was to try to top the previous high.

Each child was also urged to start and stop the urinary stream several times when urinating away from home. This helped him to develop a greater consciousness of bladder control. After six months of this training, 19 per cent were cured and 11 per cent

Oswald: "The bidding of the hand is interesting. Bobby Wolff chose the unusual no-trump to show his strong minor-suit hand. That got you two to the slam in a hurry. Some Norths may have tried take-out doubles or simple overcalls."

Jim: "They did. Then there were East players who managed to raise spades and some East-West pairs saved at six spades down either 900 or 1,100. Either save was a good one, because six diamonds vulnerable scores 1,370."

A—Four hearts is an underbid, five hearts implies two losers in clubs, four no-trump is a trifle too much. Bid three spades to show clearly that you have five spades, six hearts and a good hand.

You bid three spades and your partner bids four hearts. What do you do now?

was at that same dinner.

Records on file in U.S. District Court in Fort Smith and in the State Securities Department indicate that Bennett and Van Dalsem owned stock in the firm and Carpenter was involved in a transaction with Bennett in relation to the corporation.

Van Dalsem also requested an attorney general's opinion issued by Bennett affirming that an AL&T subsidiary, by its charter, was empowered to issue investment bonds. The governor's 15-minute speech, preceded by the music of singing star Johnny Cash and the dispatch of 7,500 hodgepods, came on a city baseball diamond crowded with more than twice as many people as he drew on a campaign stop here in his successful 1966 bid for the governorship. He was applauded a dozen times in his talk.

Rockefeller apparently referred to Cakes' earlier statement that Crank's workers did not include anyone involved in AL&T when he said, "They claim they didn't know who came in and out of their headquarters."

Calling the AL&T case "a scandal," Rockefeller said, "Obviously it's the same old machine. Obviously the same old machine wants to go backward with a Crank-up."

Here We Go Again: Local Option Vote; We Get Letters

Editor The Star: Your editorial in today's (Thursday, Sept. 19) Hope Star is an apparent attempt to frighten church boards into gagging their ministers.

I thought you were a champion of free speech.

I don't think many church members will worry about their church contributions not being deductible from their income tax returns. Sincerely

Editor The Star: My heartfelt thanks to you for a truly courageous editorial Thursday, Sept. 19.

It will undoubtedly lose you the support of a few hypocrites who profess to be pious but who sneak behind the barn, guzzle, then get up and holler in church about Demon Rum.

It's about time someone with guts spoke out. Thanks again. I speak out, but my voice carries only a short distance. Your Truly Wet

In addition to the above we have a letter mailed from Bingen dated Sept. 21 which the writer, apparently through oversight, failed to sign. If he sends us a request his letter will be returned to him for signature, and he can resubmit it for publication.

As a local option election involves all the machinery and public debate of any other election we will have to require that letters be signed, with address, for publication. In this one case we can't allow use of a mere pen-name in print - in the interest of fair play. The public is entitled to know who's speaking.

Answering Mr. Davis' letter: Free speech is one thing, but attempting to conduct a political campaign from a tax-exempt institution is something else.

I am free to write in this newspaper without tax penalty. But if I try to implement the editorial policy by promoting a petition to permit a vote for or against a law then I am "influencing legislation" and whatever expenses I incur are non-deductible from federal income tax.

On the West Coast the Sierra Club was a tax-exempt institution, and its contributions were tax-deductible - until it began campaigning for the things it believed in, whereupon its tax exemption was revoked.

H. L. Hunt of Dallas, reputed to be the second or third richest man in the world, sponsors the tax-exempt Life Lines Foundation, but the Internal Revenue Service ruled that his broadcast program was "campaign material" and revoked Life Lines' exemption.

The Rev. Charles Jones, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, called on me after publication of last Thursday's "Fair Warning" editorial and asked me how far a minister could go in discussing the liquor question. I told him he could go as far as an editor can go. It seems reasonable to suppose that a preacher can say anything he wants to from his own pulpit addressing his own congregation.

What he can not do, without inviting tax penalties against his congregation, is to use the church house for a prohibition rally or a campaign committee meeting. But inside his own church, speaking to his own congregation, he is safe - just as I am safe while I don't step beyond the pages of this newspaper.

Answering Mr. Durham: You don't get anywhere debating liquor as such. It's like sin. You are against sin. You want to abolish it - but you can't. You imagine you are your brother's keeper, but it turns out that you are only your brother's jail-keeper - and you give up in disgust.

Douglas Again Rules for Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP) - For the second time in two weeks, Justice William O. Douglas has ordered the Army not to send groups of reservists to Vietnam until the Supreme Court considers whether to hear their objections to being called up for active duty.

In issuing the order Sunday, Douglas told the Army he was staying until at least Oct. 7 any orders to send the 448th Postal Unit and the 1018th Service Supply Company to Vietnam.

Douglas, who acted one day after Chief Justice Earl Warren refused to intervene, issued a similar order Sept. 12 for the 1002nd Combat Supply Company. Warren and Justice Hugo Black also had declined to act in the earlier case.

The postal unit is from New York City, while the supply company is from Schenectady, N.Y. Both units are stationed at Ft. Lee, Va. The 1002nd is from Ohio and stationed at Ft. Meade, Md.

Thirteen members of the postal unit and 83 members of the supply company asked for the stay. Their case, as in the one from 113 members of the 1002nd company, is based on the contention that it is unconstitutional for the President to activate the reserves for extended duty without the declaration of war or a national emergency.

The units involved were among several reserve groups called to active duty by President Johnson under a 1966 law which provided he could take such action if it were in the national interest.

Although only individuals asked for the Supreme Court hearing, Douglas' action a "ties to each unit as a whole. Actually, officials at Ft. Lee said orders had already gone out to keep the units on base indefinitely.

In issuing the Sept. 12 stay, Douglas said only that the case brought up several substantial questions. As reported by court officials Sunday, Douglas made no comment on his latest order.

Several things could result from the court's Oct. 7 session. It could refuse to hear the cases, thus automatically dissolving the stays and making the units eligible for immediate shipment overseas.

Or the court could agree to put the matter on its docket for a hearing, which would mean extending the stays until a decision is reached.

At least four justices would have to vote to hear the reservists' cases before they would be put on the docket, which would be unusual in view of the reluctance by the court to hearing challenges involving the Vietnam war.

Club Told About Local Stock Show

The Third District Livestock Show and rodeo will provide lots of entertainment for all during the week of September 23-28, according to B. N. Holt, who spoke at the Hope Rotary Club luncheon on Friday at the Town and Country. He outlined events for the entire week, which will include a youth talent contest on Monday, the Fair Queen competition on Tuesday, livestock judging, a carnival, FFA participation, an art show and a rodeo.

The speaker, secretary-manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, also told of the completion of a Chamber of Commerce brochure that is available for $1.50. President Harold Eskley encouraged all to give to the blood program, and Dr. Lester Sitzes asked for co-operation in the United Fund Drive.

Visiting Rotarians were John McRae of Prescott, Jimmy Ligon of Conway, and John Blundell of Texarkana. Other guests were Bob Roney and Bob Watson, both of Little Rock.

Eight Die in Traffic Accidents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eight persons died in traffic accidents on the Arkansas highways during the weekend.

The Associated Press death toll began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Killed last Sunday in a two-car collision were Jimmy Arnold, 21, of Gould and Andrew Webb, 49, of Pine Bluff. Officers said the Webb vehicle crossed the center line. The accident occurred at Grady on U.S. 65.

State Police said William C. Stevenson, 18, of Jonesboro and Mary Lou Binkley, 33, of Swifton were killed Sunday in separate accidents.

Stevenson was killed when his motorcycle left a dead-end county road near Egypt (Craighead County). Officers said the Binkley woman was killed when the car she was driving ran off U.S. 63 just outside the city limits of Hoxie.

A one-car crash Saturday night claimed the lives of Jimmy Curry, 22, and Joe Crab, 22, both of Rison. Police said Curry apparently lost control of the vehicle about 12 miles north of Warren on Arkansas 15.

Vernon Wigginton, 34, of Osceola was struck and killed Saturday night while walking along Arkansas 140 about five miles west of Osceola.

Vida Richards, 32, of Englewood died Saturday night in a one-car wreck about 12 miles south of Lonoke on a county road.

Saturday on Highway 4 east cars driven by Amy Daniels and Peggy Sanders collided with an estimated $50 damage to each vehicle. Officers Shirley and Neal charged Peggy Sanders with failure to have a driver's license and Nancy Sanders with permitting a person to drive a vehicle without proper license.

Early Sunday on East Third St. cars driven by L. O. Robins and William R. Faulkner collided with an estimated $350 damage to both vehicles. Officer Jesse Brown charged Robins with driving while intoxicated and Faulkner for driving without lights.

Humphrey Draws Big Ohio Crowds

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) - Hubert H. Humphrey's campaign is showing smoke if not fire.

With his quest for the presidency in its second week, the vice president drew in Toledo what appeared to be the biggest crowds of his campaign - and he was as obviously delighted as a boy with a double dip ice cream cone.

"Thank you, thank you very much," he said beamingly, pumping hands as a hundred or more persons crowded around his car Sunday outside an ice cream parlor.

Humphrey is behind and knows it. He started late and slow. Even the money, he says, is in short supply, thus his television advertising was late. He also feels the turbulence surrounding the Chicago convention hurt him in the polls.

But Humphrey, the cheerful exponent of the politics of hope, still manages to sound confident.

Wait until the middle of October, he says, then go out and cover all the Nixon money available. "We're going to win," he says.

Although Humphrey was the frontrunner, he came out of the convention without much treasury or organization. And Humphrey was disappointed in the first week of his campaign.

He sprinted from coast to coast and back - with a tailwind of disappointing crowds, hecklers and snubs from Texas Gov. John Connally and California's Jesse Unruh, as well as some well-publicized oratorical mis-cues over the party's Vietnam plank and the withdrawal of troops from Vietnam.

Humphrey was tired - trying to cover too much ground, talking too long without guarding his tongue closely enough and campaigning past midnight.

The first postconvention poll results came in and Richard M. Nixon, his Republican opponent, was still far ahead.

Even then, Humphrey saw a bright side - that now antiwar dissidents could see that their next president would be Nixon if they didn't do something for Humphrey.

More advance men then were added to his campaign to bring out the crowds. The scheduling crew was shaken up. Enough money was collected so that Humphrey could go ahead with his advertising.

In addition, Humphrey was endorsed by President Johnson. And from the other side of the Vietnam issue, he won public embraces from Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, George S. McGovern and Wayne Morse. He also made a pilgrimage to see the Democrat who pulled off one of history's best-known political upsets, Harry S. Truman.

Would all this activity be

Russia Goes Ahead in Space Race

By ANTHONY COLLINGS
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) - The Russians forged ahead in the space race again over the weekend by recovering an unmanned space-ship that splashed down in the Indian Ocean after circling the moon.

Sir Bernard Lovell, Britain's top space expert, predicted that the Soviets within months will make a manned shot around the moon. James E. Webb, outgoing head of the U.S. space program, said the latest Russian feat "shows a capability that could change the basic structure and balance of power in the world."

The spaceship, Zond 5, was launched on Sept. 14. It went into a holding orbit around the earth, then took off for the moon. It circled the moon on Wednesday, landed in the Indian Ocean Saturday night, and was picked up by a Russian recovery ship Sunday.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said scientific instruments aboard the space ship had been recovered with "a vast body of scientific information."

Nixon All But Ignores Opponents

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) - Richard M. Nixon, confident but cautious, is campaigning for the White House from a script which emphasizes television and devotes little public attention to his two presidential opponents.

Nixon's standard campaign speech includes a set series of taunts at Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic nominee.

Nixon tells the crowds - generally big ones - that a nation in trouble should not turn for leadership to a member of the administration that got it there.

George C. Wallace, the third party candidate, gets not a word from Nixon on the campaign platform. The Republican nominee contends that would only build up Wallace, so he never mentions the man.

Nevertheless, Wallace is a matter of real concern to Nixon's strategists. They believe Nixon can maintain his current lead in the opinion polls, and translate it into victory over Humphrey. But they share a fear that Wallace might win enough electoral votes to deny a majority to either of the major

Airliners Forced to Go to Cuba

HAVANA (AP) - Two Colombian airliners that took off two hours apart from the same airport in Colombia were hijacked Sunday and flown to Cuba with 139 persons aboard.

A Boeing 727 jet with 72 passengers and a crew of six landed in Camaguey, 300 miles southeast of Havana, shortly after noon. No one was injured and the plane was released Sunday night and returned to Barranquilla, Colombia.

The other plane, a DC4 with 57 passengers and a crew of four, landed in Santiago de Cuba. The Swiss Embassy, which handles Colombian affairs in Cuba, said all aboard were safe and the plane and those aboard would return to Colombia today.

Two prison camps figured in the war news over the weekend. South Vietnamese headquarters said the Viet Cong overran a prisoner of war camp at Binh Son, 325 miles north of Saigon, and killed 20 of the prisoners who refused to let their "rescuers" take them away.

The camp was defended by militiamen, one of whom was killed and 10 of whom were wounded. A spokesman said before the ground attack the town and the camp were hit by 100 rockets and mortar rounds which wounded 70 civilians.

At the other end of the country, deep in the Mekong Delta, South Vietnamese militiamen found a Viet Cong prison camp near the U Minh Forest and freed 11 men, 9 women and 5 children. Some of the prisoners said they had been captives for more than three years.

In the delta province of An Xuyen, the southernmost in the nation, a battalion of South Vietnamese troops swooped down on a marshy, paddyland area this morning. Within two hours the South Vietnamese had killed 40 fleeing guerrillas and swept up 19 weapons, including several heavy machine guns, plus a stock of mortar and rocket ammunition.

Northwest of the capital, on the Communist infiltration route from Cambodia, U.S. 25th Infantry Division soldiers fought a series of skirmishes and reported killing 29 of the enemy.

Fift miles east of Saigon, in Long Khanh province, a bus was mined and 10 civilian passengers were killed and 33 were wounded.

U.S. headquarters reported enemy gunners brought down two more American helicopters, one on Friday lost with no casualties and another down on Sunday in the northern provinces with one man wounded. This brought to five the number of helicopters shot down over the weekend and the number lost in combat in the war to 88.

Tech Again Beats Team From Oklahoma

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Leon Anderson and the Thone Boys—a fitting name for a desperado gang or a country and western band.

Anderson, however, is the leader of neither. He is the Arkansas Tech quarterback and the Thone brother, Don and Ricky, are two of his primary receivers.

Anderson has completed 17 of 29 for five touchdowns in Tech's opening two victories over Oklahoma teams.

Don, a senior who caught 50 passes last year, has two touchdown receptions as does Ricky, a freshman.

"They're two pretty fair receivers," says Tech's Don Dempsey. "Don is the wing-back and Ricky is the split end and usually they're on the same side. Ricky is not an accomplished receiver but he's beginning to pick up his routes."

Tech, one of the three or four favorites in the AIC, plays Arkansas A&M, which has won at least a share of the title the last three years, Saturday night at Monticello.

A&M clobbered Northwest Missouri 38-13 Saturday in a game that was supposed to be far closer.

"They didn't surprise us," said Dempsey.

Last year Tech and A&M played a 3-3 tie.

"Last year we lined up and played a head to head defensive game," he said. "I wouldn't be surprised if it was the same kind of game Saturday."

"I can't think of anything tougher than playing A&M at Monticello unless it was their homecoming, which it is, and that makes it doubly tough," Dempsey said.

State College of Arkansas, which surprised some persons by handling Florence, Ala., on the road, takes on Ouachita Baptist University Saturday at Conway.

The other three conference teams play out-of-state opponents. Southern State will be at Mississippi College Thursday and Harding hosts Millsaps Friday. Henderson, which dedicated its new stadium with a 17-0 victory over Mississippi College, plays Centenary Saturday.

Hulme Moves Into a Tie With Hill

MONT TREMBLANT, Que. (AP) — The Grand Prix of Canada proved to be a pretty shifty piece of driving by Denis Hulme of New Zealand.

Hulme, who said he had to shift gears 20 times each lap while winning the 230.8-mile race Sunday, also caused a shift in the standings of the world road-circuit driving championship by moving into a first-place tie with Graham Hill of England.

Hulme picked up nine points to three for Hill, who finished fourth, and each now had 33 with one race—the American Grand Prix at Watkins Glen, N.Y., Oct. 6—of the 12-race championship series remaining.

Hulme drove his McLaren home in two hours, 27 minutes, 11.2 seconds for an average son.

speed of 97.25 miles per hour. Fellow New Zealander Bruce McLaren, who owns Hulme's car, finished second.

Pedro Rodriguez of Mexico, the engine of his British BRM smoking in the late stages of the race, finished third ahead of Hill in a British Lotus. Fifth went to Vic Elford of England in a Cooper and sixth to Jackie Stewart of Scotland in a French Matra Ford.

State Takes Victory Over Drake

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Arkansas State University rode the accurate passing of freshman quarterback James Hamilton to a 46-14 nonconference victory over Drake Saturday.

The Indians, shut out last week by Western Michigan, wasted no time in starting their scoring parade.

The Indians scored the first time they had possession and never let up as they evened their season record at 1-1.

Hamilton hit his favorite receiver, Joe Waleszonia, with scoring passes of 80 and 44 yards and threw 24 yards to Dennis Zolper and eight yards to tailback Frank McGulgan for two more touchdowns.

Drake fans got one of their few chances to cheer early in the third quarter when sophomore defensive back Mike Carden grabbed a fumble and rambled 85 yards for his team's second TD.

Drake threatened only once after that and was unable to penetrate ASU's 20-yard line.

Drake's most impressive drive of the day came in the first half. Halfback Bob Rogers raced 39 yards for a touchdown that gave Drake a 7-7 tie.

The Indians defensive line threw Drake quarterback Gary McCoy for a total of 48 yards lost.

Hamilton completed 15 of 26 passes for 161 yards for Drake, but the Bulldogs were limited to 68 net yards rushing.

Drake's offensive leader for the past three years, tailback Bobby Misner, was held to 44 yards on 17 carries.

The Indians enjoyed good field position for the rest of the game after Kevin McClelland booted a 56-yard punt in the third quarter.

Diamonds Register First Win

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Bobby Tiner raced 65 yards for one touchdown and passed 25 yards to Charles Killett for another Saturday night as the Arkansas Diamonds registered their first victory in the Continental Football League by defeating the Las Vegas Cowboys 24-13.

The Diamonds held a 217-59 edge in rushing and were about even with the Cowboys in the passing department.

Randy Behringer plunged four yards off the Diamonds' third touchdown. Peter Christiansen added a 35-yard field goal and three extra points.

Miss Whitworth Closing In

KINGSBURG, Calif. (AP)—Kathy Whitworth of Dallas is closing in on Carol Mann financially.

Miss Whitworth shot a final round 69 Sunday and finished 10 strokes ahead of second place Sandra Haynie in the $15,000 Kings River Open Golf Tournament. And she won $2,071 more than Miss Mann.

Her 54-hole score of 208 was 20 shots better than Miss Mann, the leading money-winner on the ladies tour with $47,381. But Miss Whitworth is in second and driving.

After winning $2,250 Sunday, Miss Whitworth had rung up $46,144 and she could surpass Miss Mann with a victory in the Fallbrook, Calif., Open next weekend.

WORLD SERIES

By BOB BROEG
Sports Editor
St. Louis Post-Dispatch
Written for NEA

Of the St. Louis Cardinals' 11 previous pennant-winning ball clubs, the best probably were the 1931 and 1942 teams and the most colorful was the 1934 Gas House Gang. The current Cardinals have characteristics of all three.

They've got the speed, defense and almost as much pitching depth as the 1942 St. Louis Swifties, the veteran balance of the 1931 team which included Pepper Martin, Frank Frisch, Burleigh Grimes, and much of the personal charm and musical depreciation of the Gas House Gang, a collection of cutthroats who climaxed a September '34 run to the pennant with a World Series victory over—coincidentally—the Detroit Tigers. On that team were the Dean brothers, Leo Medwick, Rip Collins, Leo Durocher.

When St. Louis hoists a pennant, the National League's chances automatically improve in a World Series because the Cardinals, once the only N.L. standard-bearer that could keep heads high in the annual October battle for baseball's blue ribbon, have prevailed in eight of 11 series.

Despite that Series tradition, the Cardinals never have put world championships back to back. For that matter, no National League team has succeeded itself as king of the hill since the New York Giants beat their former Polo Grounds tenants, the Yankees, in 1921 and '22.

So the Red Birds of Red Schoendienst now will have an opportunity to meet a challenge that first was presented to them in an open letter of congratulations shortly after Bob Gibson had defeated the Boston Red Sox a third time last October.

Would the Cards permit themselves to get fat in the head and at the waist as well as in the wallet?

That was the question, which they've answered in a season marked by the consistency of the incredible Gibson, who rounded the bend into mid-September with an earned run average lower than the best dead-ball ERA's of two old masters, Walter Johnson and Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Aided early by Steve Carlton, late by Ray Washburn and most often by Nelson Briles, with occasional starting assistance from Larry Jaster, a staff led by Gibson shrugged off almost total loss of Dick Hughes, who paced the staff a year ago with 16 victories.

With left-handed Joe Hoerner the most reliable reliever, this was indeed the deepest staff in talent of any St. Louis club—and perhaps of any other franchise, too—since the '42 club featured the efficiency of Mort Cooper, Johnny Beazley, Ernie White, Max Lanier, Howard Pollet, Harry Gumbert, Howard Krist and Murray Dickson.

The backbone of the 1942-44-46 pennant winners was the pitching staff and a fabulous outfield of Musial, Moore and Slaughter. Marty Marion at shortstop and Walker Cooper, catcher, also were standouts in that period.

Of the stars of the '40s, though, only sure-thing Musial and probably Slaughter now seem likely to win Hall of Fame recognition. Of the current Cardinals, Gibson seems to have a strong chance, followed by Curt Flood and Lou Brock. Gibson this year has been the greatest pitcher I've ever seen.

Flood, an 11-year veteran at 30, is the best all-round center fielder the Cardinals have had in my time, and Brock, who tore up the Red Sox in the 1967 World Series, is the best leadoff man—the most effective and the most exciting.

This is, you see, an exciting team like '42 and '34. It'll run, steal, take the extra base and like the '31 and '42 clubs, it'll make the big play defensively. A year ago it hit smartly, like the '31 and '34 teams, but not this time, not in the Year of the Big Zero.

Danny the Red Is Arrested

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Daniel Cohn-Bendit, who as Danny the Red was a leader in the French student rioting, was arrested Sunday as he led a demonstration.

Cohn-Bendit was seized as he tried to enter St. Paul's Church where President Leopold Senghor of Senegal was receiving a peace prize awarded by the German book trade. About 3,000 demonstrators chanted protests against award of the prize to Senghor, calling him a "murderer of students" and an oppressor in his country.

Cardinals

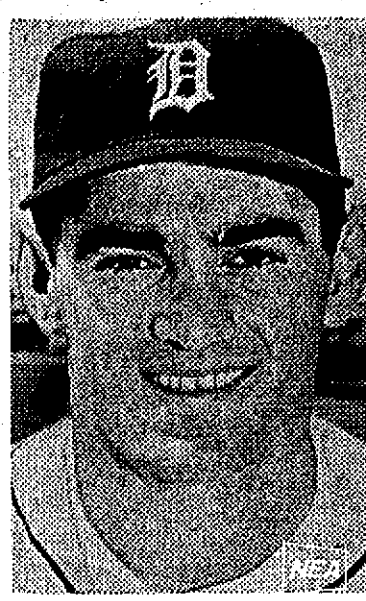

ORLANDO CEPEDA

Throws, bats right. Slumped miserably in '68 after being MVP for World Champs in '67. Always a power threat, though. Swinging "through" a lot of balls—that is, contact poor now. Good breaking ball hitter. Doesn't handle hard stuff as well. Doesn't like pitches in tight. So-so first baseman. Not much range; but hangs on to what comes within limited reach.

NORM CASH

Throws, bats left. Improved fielder. Handles most everything he gets to. But is nearing 35 years old. Still powerful hitter, though streaky. Hot in September. Has opened a stance because pitchers were jamming him.

DICK MCAULIFFE

Throws right, bats left. Hustler of the old school, or of the Pete Rose school. Batting competitor—with fists as well as bat. Excellent base-runner. Power hitter, particularly for lead-off man. High ball hitter. Tries to pull a lot. In field, he'll do the job. That's all. Average arm. Average on D.P.

DON WERT

Throws, bats right. Maybe second only to Brooks Robinson as glove man at third. Rifle arm. Slumped at plate in '67, slumped even further in '68. But always poses a threat at plate. Has power, and small Detroit park makes him particularly dangerous. Enigma of sorts. He'll hit anything one pitcher throws, nothing a comparable hurler serves up.

TOM MATCHOCK

Throws right, bats left. Only rookie who has chance to start in Series. He platoons with veterans Dick Tracy and Ray Oyler, defensive specialist. Right-hander Gibson is odds-on to start for Cards. That means Matchock would go, too. At short, he has a average range and good arm. Tracy has World Series experience, having played in '63 and '65 with Dodgers. Oyler fields like a demon, hits like a dud.

There are about 1,200 shoe-making firms in the United Kingdom, one-third of which have less than 20 employees, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

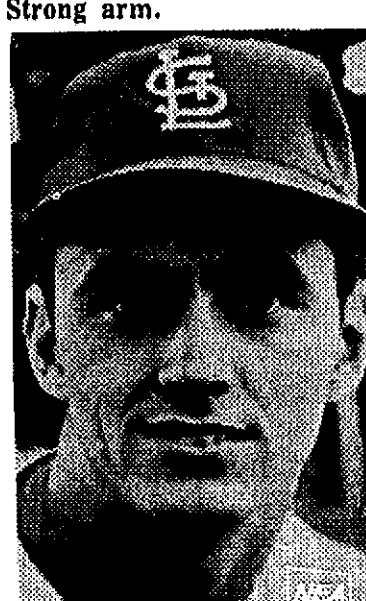

JULIAN JAVIER

Throws, bats right. Low ball hitter. Can jam him. Exceptionally good breaking ball hitter when in hole with two strikes. In '67 curbed habit of swinging at bad pitches, emerged as tough batter. Not as successful this season, but still potent. Has power, speed. Quick glove with range and strong arm.

MIKE SHANNON

Throws, bats right. Most underrated player on team. Clutch hitter. Hits for power and decent average. Pitcher can't make mistake with him; Shannon ready to capitalize. Most effective pitch against him—good fast ball inside. Greatly improved at third, in second year there after having moved from right to make room for Roger Maris. In command of position now. Strong arm.

DAL MAXVILL

Throws, bats right. Scraper. Good fast ball hitter. Comes through with poke singles up middle and to right. Hits behind runner exceeding well. One of best fielding shortstops in game. Arm not particularly strong, but gets to ball so quickly that he has extra time to get throw to first.

LBJ Visit to Russia Called Pure Madness

Editor's Note — Scholar, writer and diplomat, George F. Kennan is one of the United States' premier experts on communism and the Soviet Union. In a diplomatic career that spanned nearly three decades, Kennan served in many posts and became ambassador to Moscow and later to Yugoslavia. He is generally thought to have designed the Truman administration's policy of containment of Soviet expansionism. A Pulitzer Prize winner, Kennan now teaches at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton, N.J.

In the following story, Kennan is interviewed on the current status of Soviet international affairs by Endre Marton, an Associated Press writer who covers diplomatic affairs in Washington. Marton was was imprisoned by Hungarian Communists in 1955 but was released in time to cover the 1956 uprising in that country.

By ENDRE MARTON
Associated Press Writer
PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — George F. Kennan, a leading expert on the Soviet Union, says it would be "pure madness" for President Johnson to travel to Moscow for a meeting with Russian leaders.

In an interview, Kennan, former ambassador to Moscow and Belgrade, said:

"The suggestion of such a meeting at this time smacks of one of the worst phenomena of American diplomacy in earlier years, namely: The abuse of external relations of our people as a whole for the domestic-political advantage of a single faction or party. The idea of the President's going to Russia at this time strikes me as pure madness."

"What respect would the Russians pay to the word of a lame duck president?" Kennan asked. "What has Mr. Johnson to offer them? It is a bad policy to go and plead with people when you have no cards in your hands, no carrot and no stick."

The 64-year-old retired diplomat and scholar also said the invasion of Czechoslovakia last month by the Soviet Union and its Warsaw Pact allies caught the United States paralyzed, just as it was during the 1965 Hungarian uprising.

"Unfortunately, our attention was and is diverted by crises in other parts of the world," he said.

"What could we have done in these situations if we had not been tied up with these other situations? We might, it seems to me, have at least proposed some modification of our military position in Germany as quid pro quo for Soviet forbearance in Hungary or in Czechoslovakia, as the case might be."

"We could have proposed, for example, a withdrawal of American forces from Bavaria (in West Germany) or some other area in return for Russian withdrawal from Czechoslovakia."

"This might not have been accepted, but it would have given the Czechs a talking point in their dealings with the Russians and exposed the hollowness of the Russian claim that they needed for military reasons to station troops along the western border of Czechoslovakia. And there might have been people in the Soviet high command to whom such an offer would have had serious appeal."

When asked what the United States should do now to offset the Soviet intervention, Kennan, now teaching at the Institute for Advanced Study, answered:

"Perhaps move 100,000 men into Germany and tell the Russians: 'We will not take them out until you leave Czechoslovakia.'"

However, he went on, "The trouble is that we don't put any cards in the hands of those elements in the Soviet Union who never liked the idea of sending 300,000 or 400,000 men into Czechoslovakia in the first place and who might like to reverse this policy now."

During the wide-ranging interview in his spacious and comfortable study, Kennan discussed the general field of U.S.-Soviet relations and indicated he doesn't trust Russia now any more than he did before World War II.

"I have never understood this talk about detente (relaxation of East-West tensions). I have not seen any evidence of detente and I wouldn't trust any so-called detente if it is not supported by free contacts between governments and peoples."

However, he went on, such an atmosphere for cooperation "simply doesn't exist. Their conspiratorial method of diplomatic action cannot create such an atmosphere."

The agreements between Moscow and Washington on nuclear nonproliferation have been progress, Kennan went on, but not detente. "This is simply the dictate of an obvious and bitter situation, presenting danger to both... The real test of relations would be if the Soviets permitted normal contacts between peoples."

"Any real detente would have to begin with agreement on the future of Eastern and Central Europe. But I don't see that anything has changed in this respect, or that we would be any closer to the solution of the German problem."

The Molotov cocktail was developed during World War II. It was an incendiary grenade.

Nobody Is Laughing, Says Wallace

By JULES LOH
Associated Press Writer
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — "My campaign," said a grinning George C. Wallace to an audience in Dallas the other day, "reminds me of the old joke that begins, 'They laughed when I sat down to play...'"

"Well," he said to the boom of applause and the scream of rebel yells, "not many Democrats or Republicans are laughing now."

Wallace has said that even he, whose political antennae are probably as sensitive as anybody's, did not anticipate when he announced his third-party candidacy in January the degree of success it would achieve by late September.

Wallace, for example, expected his "mission impossible" task force of Alabama lawyers to win for him a place on the ballots of 40 states at most.

Last week, when he met the qualifications of the 50th state — although Ohio remains in doubt — he began referring to the Democrats and Republicans as "the other two national parties."

He says his campaign treasury is in good condition, "but don't get the idea we're swimming in money," and he plans to eliminate many of the fund-raising dinners that have been a staple of his campaign appearances. There also is a rumor that he soon will replace his prop-driven DC7 airplane with a speedier prop-jet model.

He also plans to slow the pace of his campaign. Last Friday he completed a fatiguing swing through the Southwest, Midwest and South, and will not resume again until next Friday, when he will embark on a trip through the Northeast, Midwest and Far West.

The secret of Wallace's success has become clear as his traveling road show — complete with a country band and two blonde vocalists — the Taylor Sisters, Mona and Lisa — has wound its way through 31 states. Wallace has demonstrated an acute sense of the fundamental fears and irritations that gnaw at a great many bewildered Americans, and an ability to speak of them in simple, colorful terms.

Concerning law and order, for example, the visceral issue of his campaign, Wallace says the Democratic and Republican candidates promised to enforce the law but that both of them, by past policies, had helped to bring about "today's anarchy."

"I reply to them," Wallace said the other night in Florida, "in the words of an old hillbilly song: 'It's too late to ask for forgiveness.'"

"Tell it like it is, Georgel!" has become a slogan shrieked at rallies from Milwaukee to Montgomery, Lowell to Long Beach.

His appeal is pitched to men who attend his rallies in shirts with open collars, women in toreador pants, though suits and ties are well-represented, and lately, a growing number of young people have been on hand.

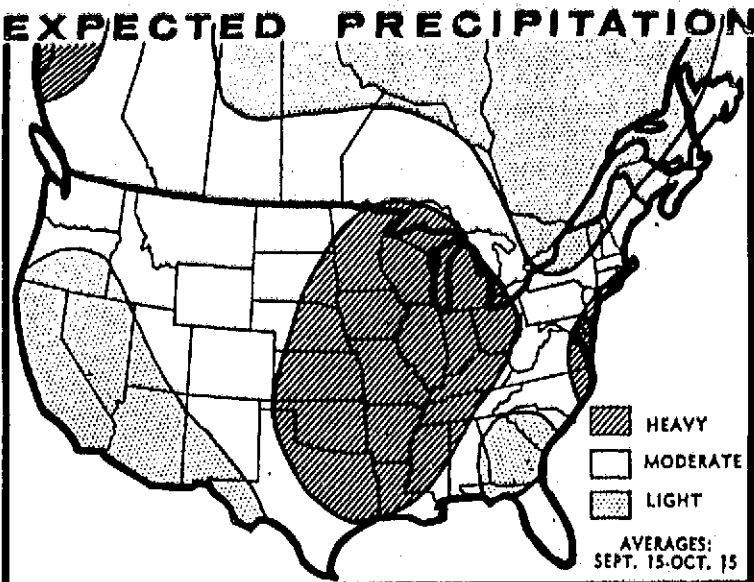

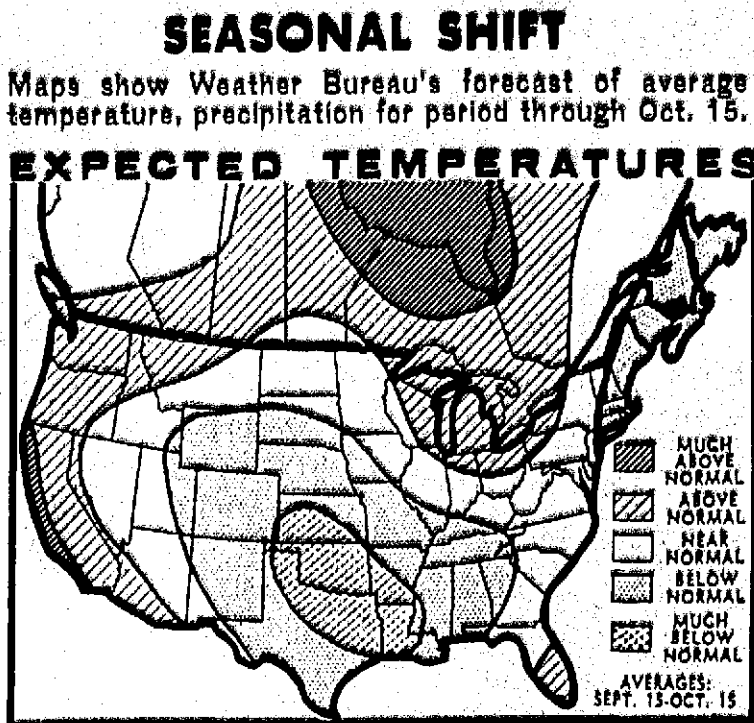

"Folks have been looking down their noses at us rednecks long enough," Wallace tells them, "and we're going to show them on Nov. 5 that there are more of us than them."

He says his views "represent the mainstream of American thought" and that he has a better than an outside chance of winning the election.

He sneers at the "scientific polls" which currently reflect the support of about 20 per cent of the electorate, recalls his unexpected success when he ran in primary elections in 1964, and predicts, "We're going to put a lot of pollsters out of business

"ALL RIGHT, YOU BIRDS, FORWARD MARCH!" This mother duck takes on the appearance of a drill sergeant as her ducklings pass in review. Photographer Randy Dieter spotted the action on a pond near Evansville, Ind.

Withdrawal Possibility, Says Humphrey

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, saying that if his Vietnam views conflict with President Johnson's "Then so be it," has repeated his stand that some U.S. troop withdrawals should be possible in the near future.

The Democratic presidential candidate, drawing the biggest crowds of his campaign in Ohio Sunday, also said he hopes if elected to work out "de-Americanization of the war" with Saigon leaders.

Humphrey repeated in Columbus his prediction that "systematic reduction of American forces" should be possible soon, when and if South Vietnam becomes able to take over more of its own self-defense.

"Now that's my position," he said. "What's the President's position, that's his business."

But Humphrey said he sees no conflict in Johnson's statement that no one can predict timing of troop withdrawals. He said Johnson was referring to "when this war will be over, when you can withdraw all your troops."

Humphrey declined, however, to repeat his earlier prediction that withdrawals could begin by early 1969. He called such specific forecasts "pitfalls" for public officials.

Third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace, meanwhile, said briefings from military friends convince him the Vietnam war can be won with conventional weapons and no increase in American troops.

The war has not been won,

on election day."

Last week aboard his lumbering campaign airplane he cracked to his traveling corps of newsmen: "Do you fellows think either Mr. Nixon or Mr. Humphrey will get enough votes to throw this election into the House of Representatives?"

Wallace said, "because they (government leaders) have considered political and diplomatic considerations ahead of military considerations in Southeast Asia and it has not worked."

Wallace also said he will name his vice presidential running mate next week.

He was interviewed on a special CBS "Face the Nation" broadcast from Atlanta.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon took a day off from campaigning Sunday but his national political director issued a statement saying Humphrey's presidential bid is in "desperate straits."

"With Mr. Humphrey that desperate," said Robert Ellsworth, "the American people can look for almost any demagogic maneuver from his camp."

Nixon's communications director, Herbert G. Klein, said a Republican truth squad will follow Humphrey as he campaigns. Klein said two of the squad members will be Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., and Rep. Donald Rumsfeld, R-Ill.

Nixon's running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, said in Honolulu Sunday night Vietnam "will not fade because we blow retreat, it will not vanish in the wishes of a flower child, it will not suffocate in the smoke of a burning draft card."

"Richard Nixon's answer is the only one," Agnew said. "The path to peace is one of strong defenses and strong principles. It's dealing more nations into the peace-keeping responsibilities of the free world. It's getting them off the bench and into the ball game."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, was in Washington today. He planned to resume campaigning Tuesday with stops in Charleston, W. Va., and Pittsburgh, Pa.

"Old Slwash" Knox College in Illinois is affectionately referred to as "Old Slwash." George Fitch, Knox '97 alumnus, immortalized it as such in his humorous novels of college life.

party candidates, thus sending the election to the House of Representatives.

Robert Ellsworth, Nixon's national political director, charged in an interview that the Democrats have a conscious strategy designed to do just that.

"The Democrats are doing everything they can to build up Wallace," Ellsworth said. He said they see in a House decision their best chance of denying Nixon the presidency.

Nixon's campaign pace is generally a leisurely one, with two or three speeches a day, each virtually identical. The schedule is shaped around television, and the question-and-answer programs Nixon is staging in the major states.

There have been four so far: Ohio, Illinois, California and Pennsylvania.

There will be at least a half-dozen more, Nixon's travels are frequently structured around the campaign television shows. So is his schedule. Each of them is preceded by a day of relaxation and preparation.

Nixon's campaign speech features an appeal to the people the candidate calls forgotten Americans. "You are Republicans, you are Democrats, you are independents," Nixon says. "You have been quiet. You have been going to work and you have been paying your taxes and supporting your schools."

But now, says Nixon, these quiet, forgotten Americans are aroused and ready to speak out with votes on Nov. 5.

The set speech's main assault on Humphrey links the vice president to that administration. Leading in the public opinion polls, Nixon has passed to his campaign staff a word of warning against overconfidence.

His schedule is being kept flexible, made up 10 days to two weeks in advance, so that the nominee can devote his time to states in which his advisors believe a campaign nudge is needed.

That could include extra television appearances in some key states.

While the word is out against overconfidence, the word also is out that if the polls continue to run as they have, Nixon will feel free in the weeks ahead to campaign in some states with few electoral votes but with Republicans running for Senate or House seats or governorships.

"You may see more of that," one Nixon advisor said.

As used by seamen, the term "ecclesiastic bricks" refers to holystones which seamen had to use for scrubbing decks. They were also known as "hand bibles."
